

Ulnar aluminium crutches with underreamers handle (with anti-skid device) HT-02-006

The crutches are perform supporting function. Used for the disabled, the sick and the elderly with diseases of the musculoskeletal system. In addition, you can use a crutch to facilitate of movements. Made of aluminium, adjustable in height. Handle with armrest provides a stable support on hand and elbow. Convenient pull-out system of the spike can allow to use the product at any time of the year.

Technical data Ulnar aluminium crutches with underreamers handle (with anti-skid device) HT-02-006:

Height, mm: 950...1180

Weight, mm: 0.7

Load, kg: 100